A hand-drawn diagram of a mobile phone screen. The screen is a rounded rectangle with a thick blue border. Inside the screen, there is a smaller rounded rectangle. On the left side of this inner rectangle, the word "Date" is written vertically in a cursive font. To the right of "Date" is a vertical rectangle containing a downward-pointing arrow. In the center of the inner rectangle, the word "Time" is written vertically in a cursive font. To the right of "Time" is another vertical rectangle containing a downward-pointing arrow. On the far left of the phone's frame, there is a short horizontal line. On the far right, there is a circle. The entire diagram is drawn in blue lines on a light beige background.
